DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Duijzings et al. (WO 02/10222 ; equivalent document U.S. 6,812,283 relied upon for translation).

The example of Duijzings et al. discloses rubber particles comprising butadiene latex (fragmentation domain, first polymer) that has been agglomerated by polymer prepared via free radical polymerization of styrene and acrylonitrile (connecting phase, second polymer) in the presence of said latex. According to the general definitions provided in the instant application, the resulting product disclosed in Duijzings et al. adequately qualifies as “precision fragmentation assemblage.”

3. Claims 1-4 and 8-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yang et al. (U.S. 6,013,594).

The example in Yang et al. teaches a catalyst supported on polystyrene particles (fragmentation domain, first polymer) that are agglomerated with polyvinyl alcohol (connecting phase, second polymer). The catalyst is a transition metal complex and organoaluminum contact product, and it is used in a process for polymerization of olefins (claims 6-10).

4. Claims 5-7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. None of the cited references teaches use of PNP's or tether groups covalently bound to a polymeric chain, as recited in the claims.
